

Grown Up

Written and drawn by Sunny Park

A child walked along the path.

Hi sloth!

Hi child!
Where are you headed?

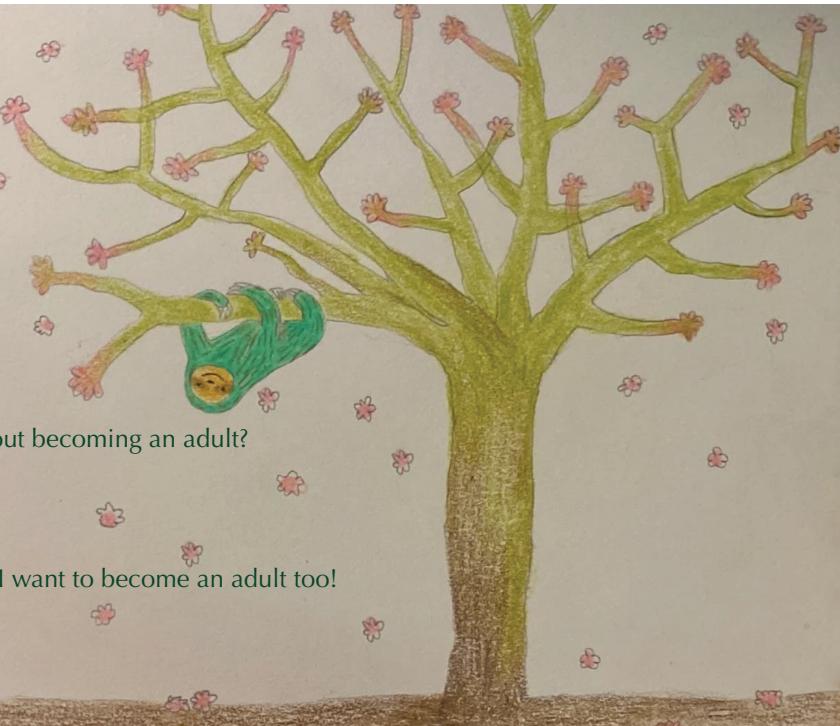

I heard that if you walk along this path,
you will become an adult!

Adults can do stuff that we cannot do!

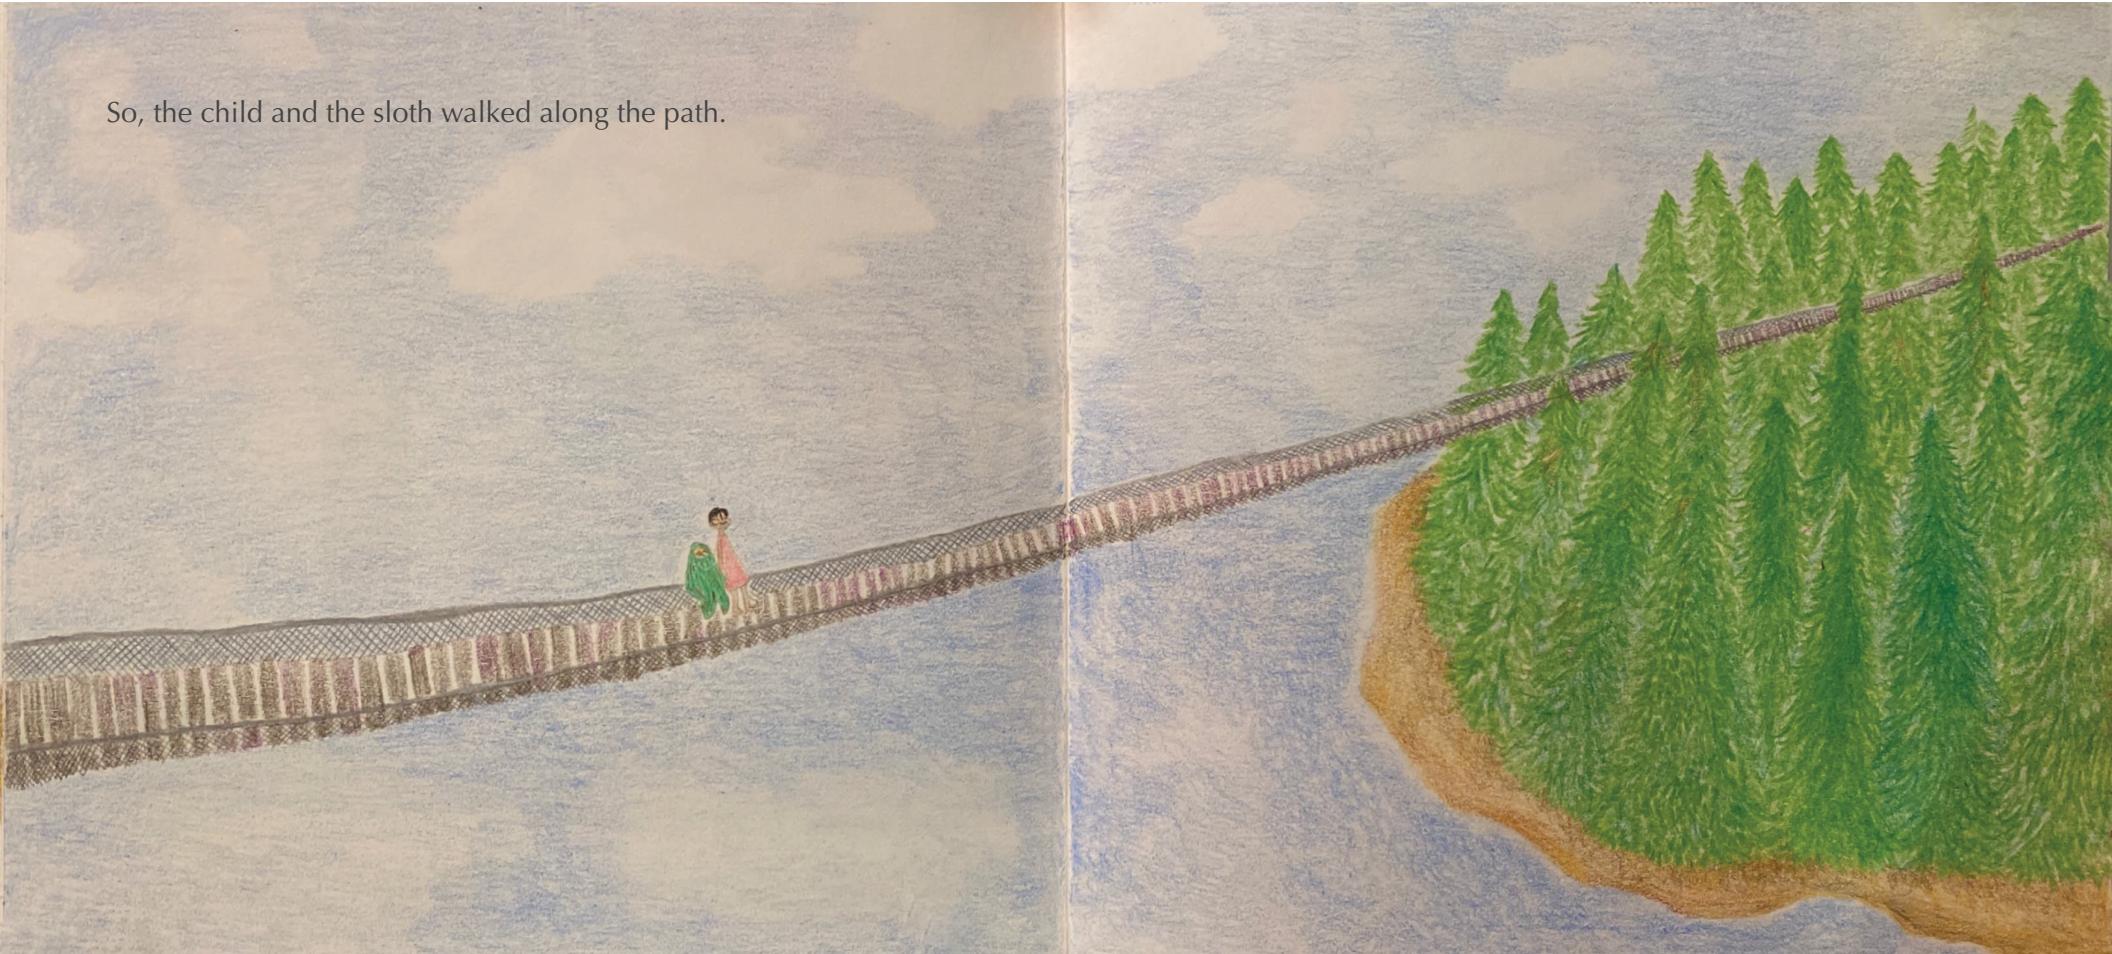

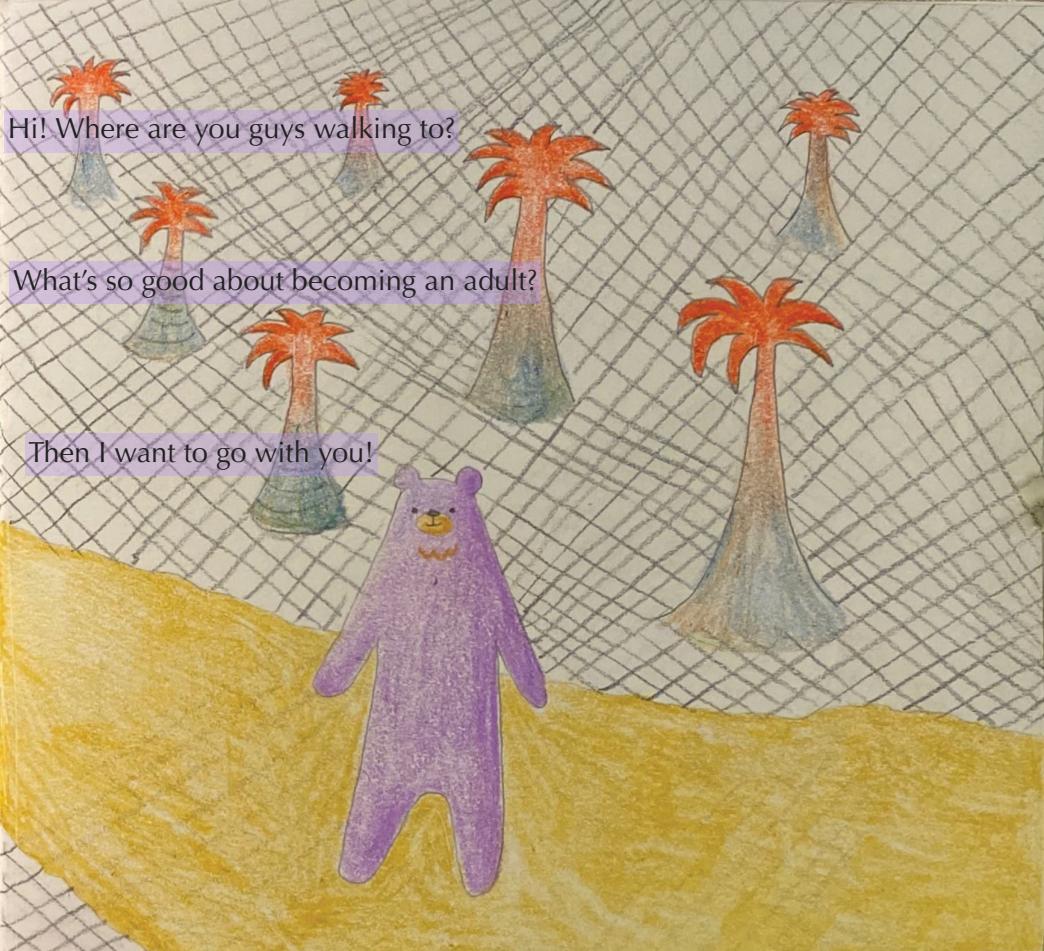

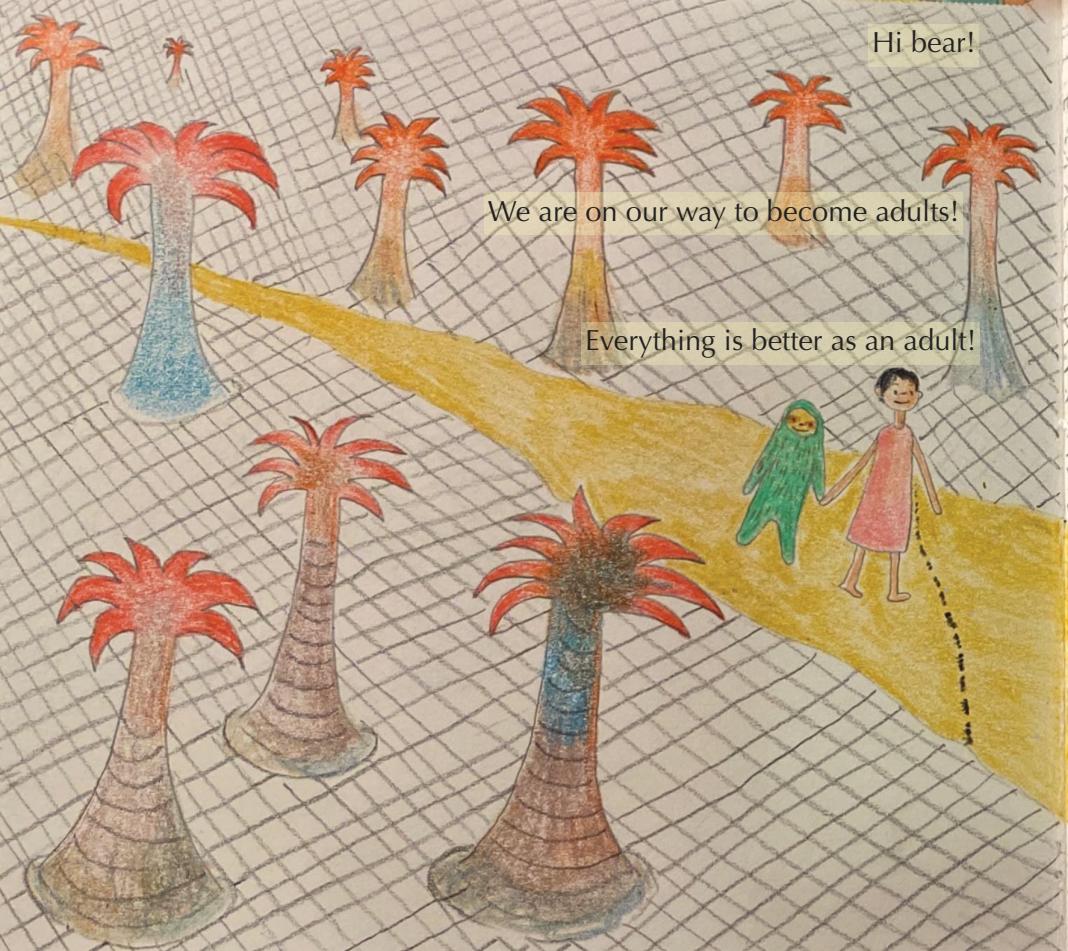

What's good about becoming an adult?

Then I want to become an adult too!

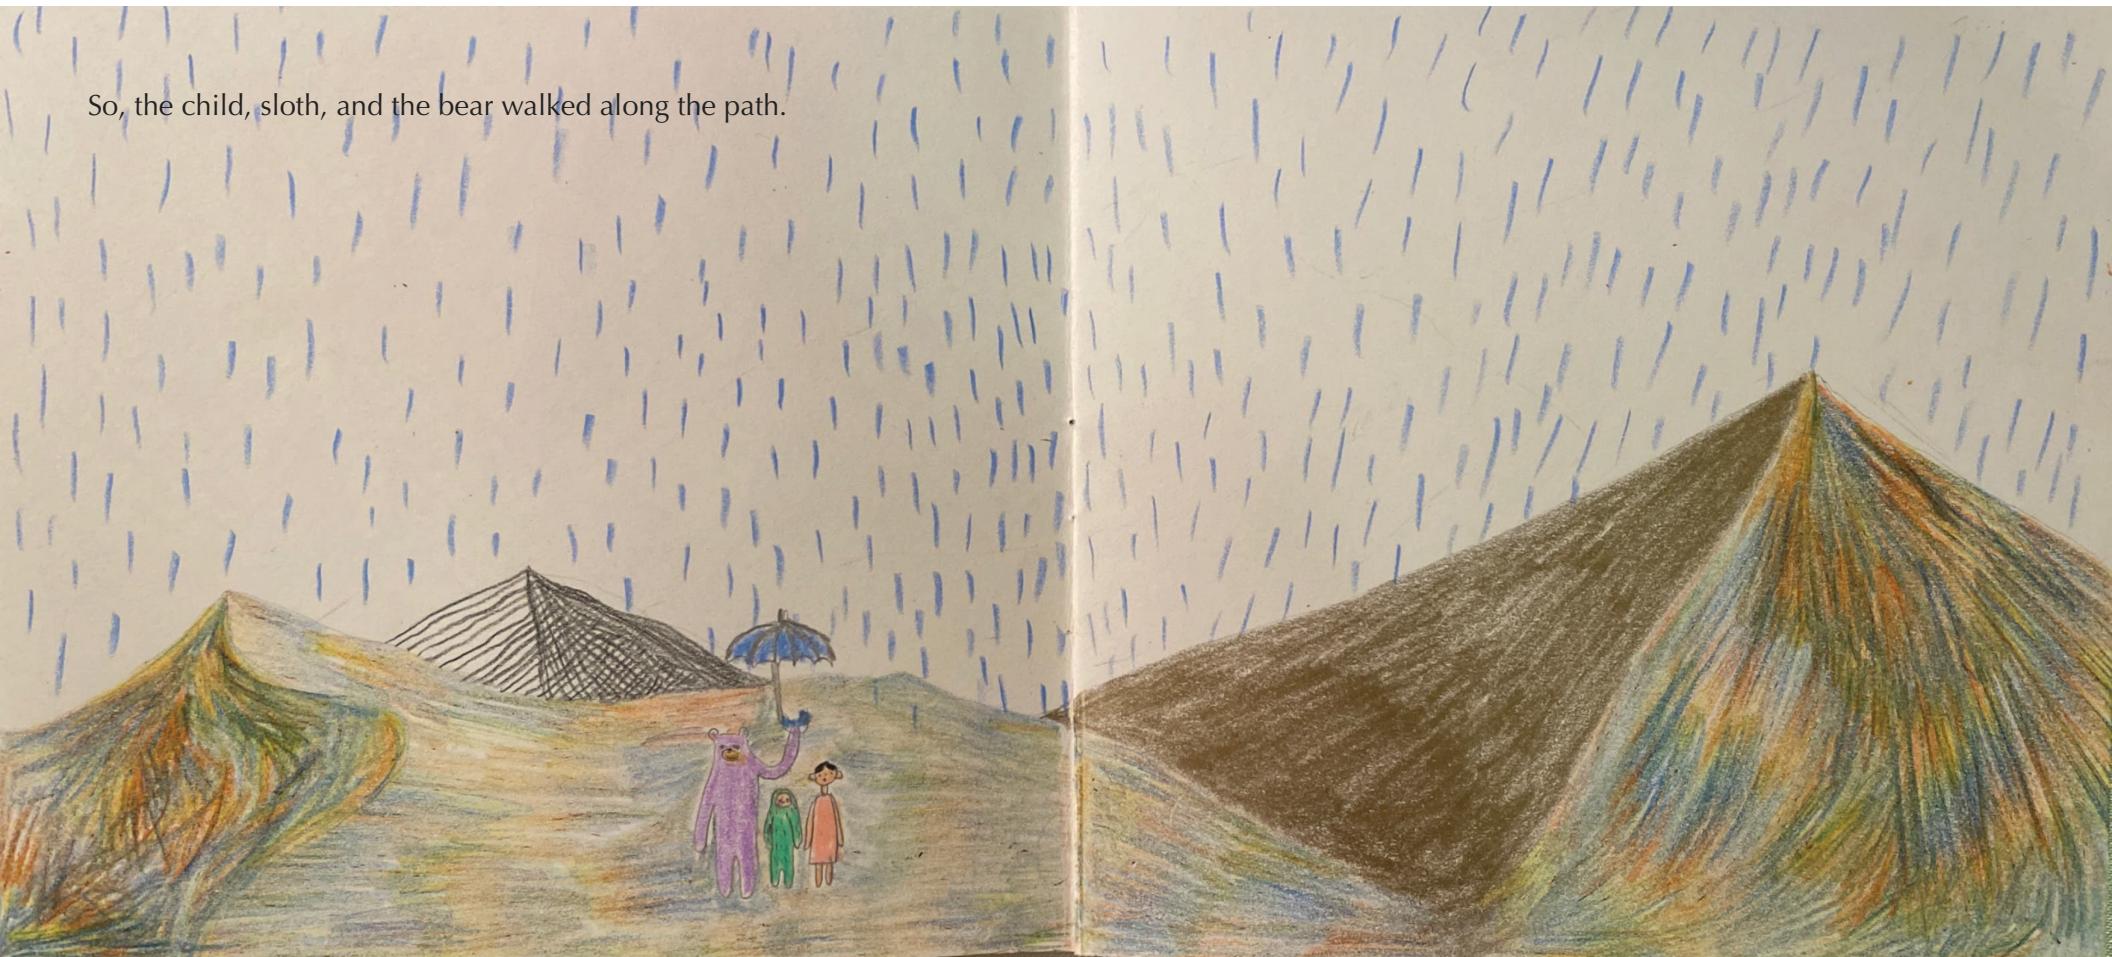

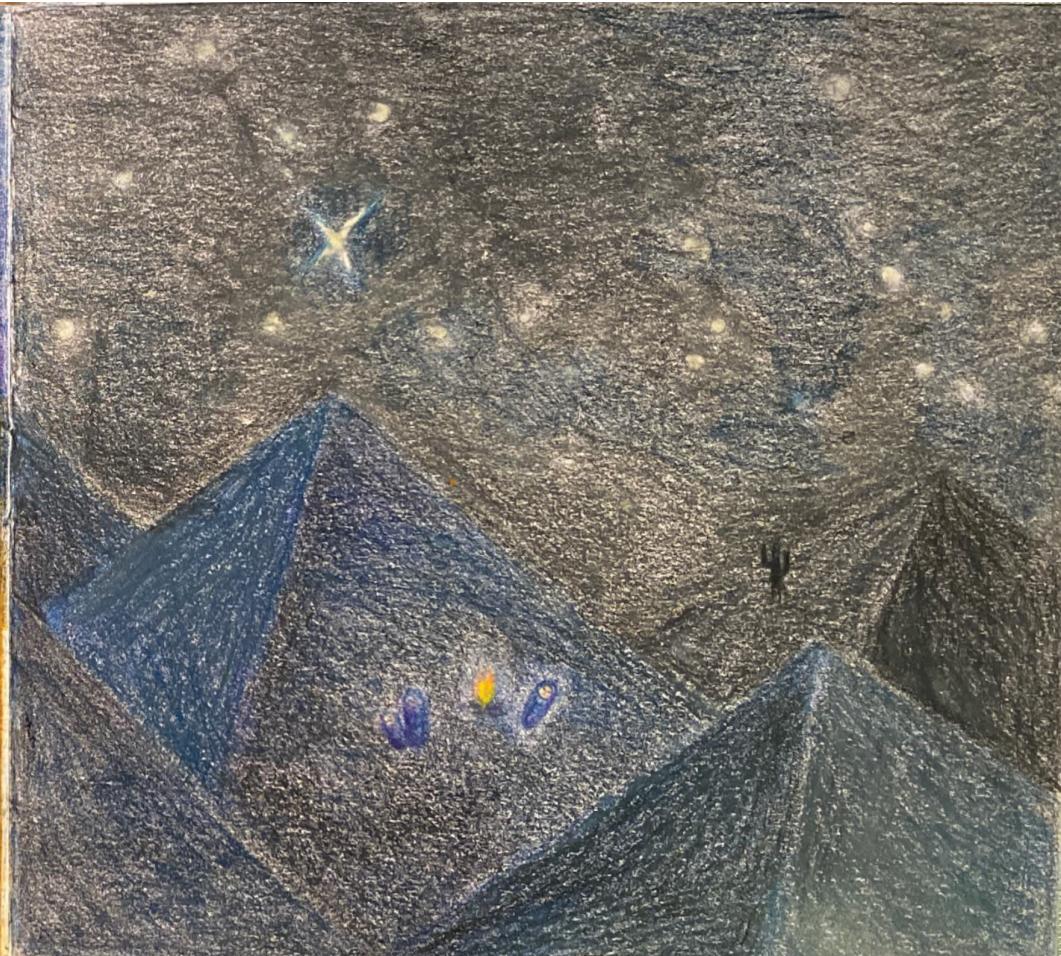

So, the child and the sloth walked along the path.

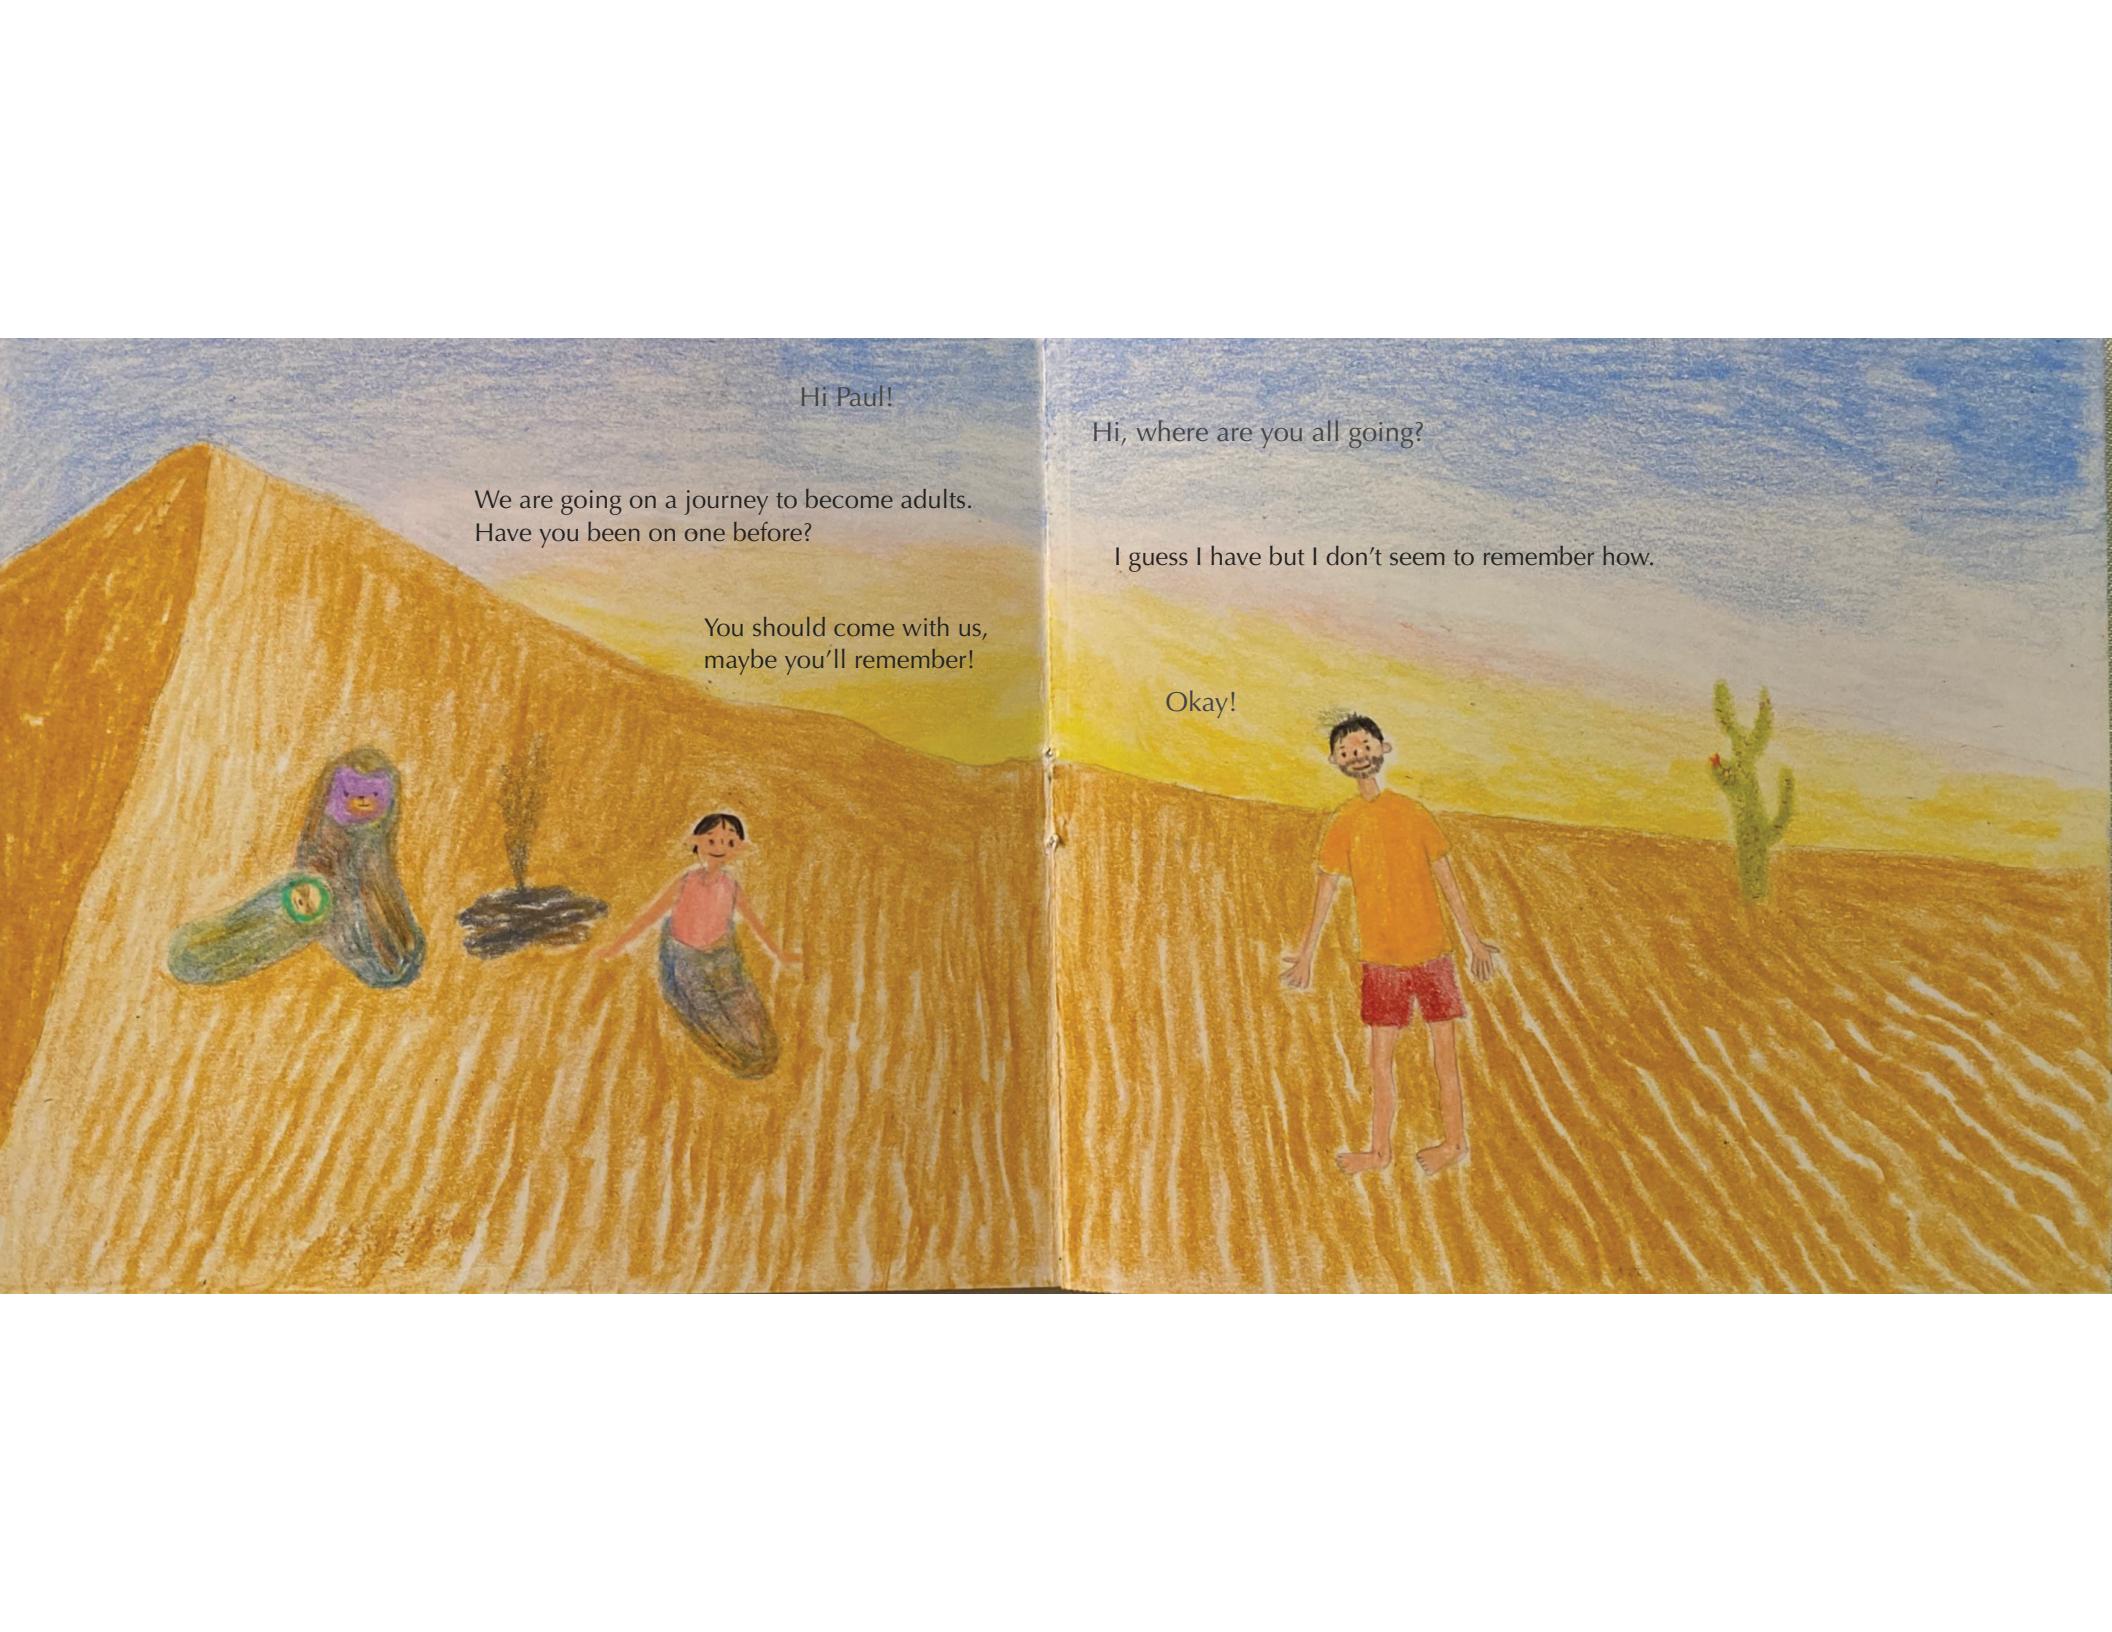

So, the child, sloth, and the bear walked along the path.

Hi Paul!

We are going on a journey to become adults.
Have you been on one before?

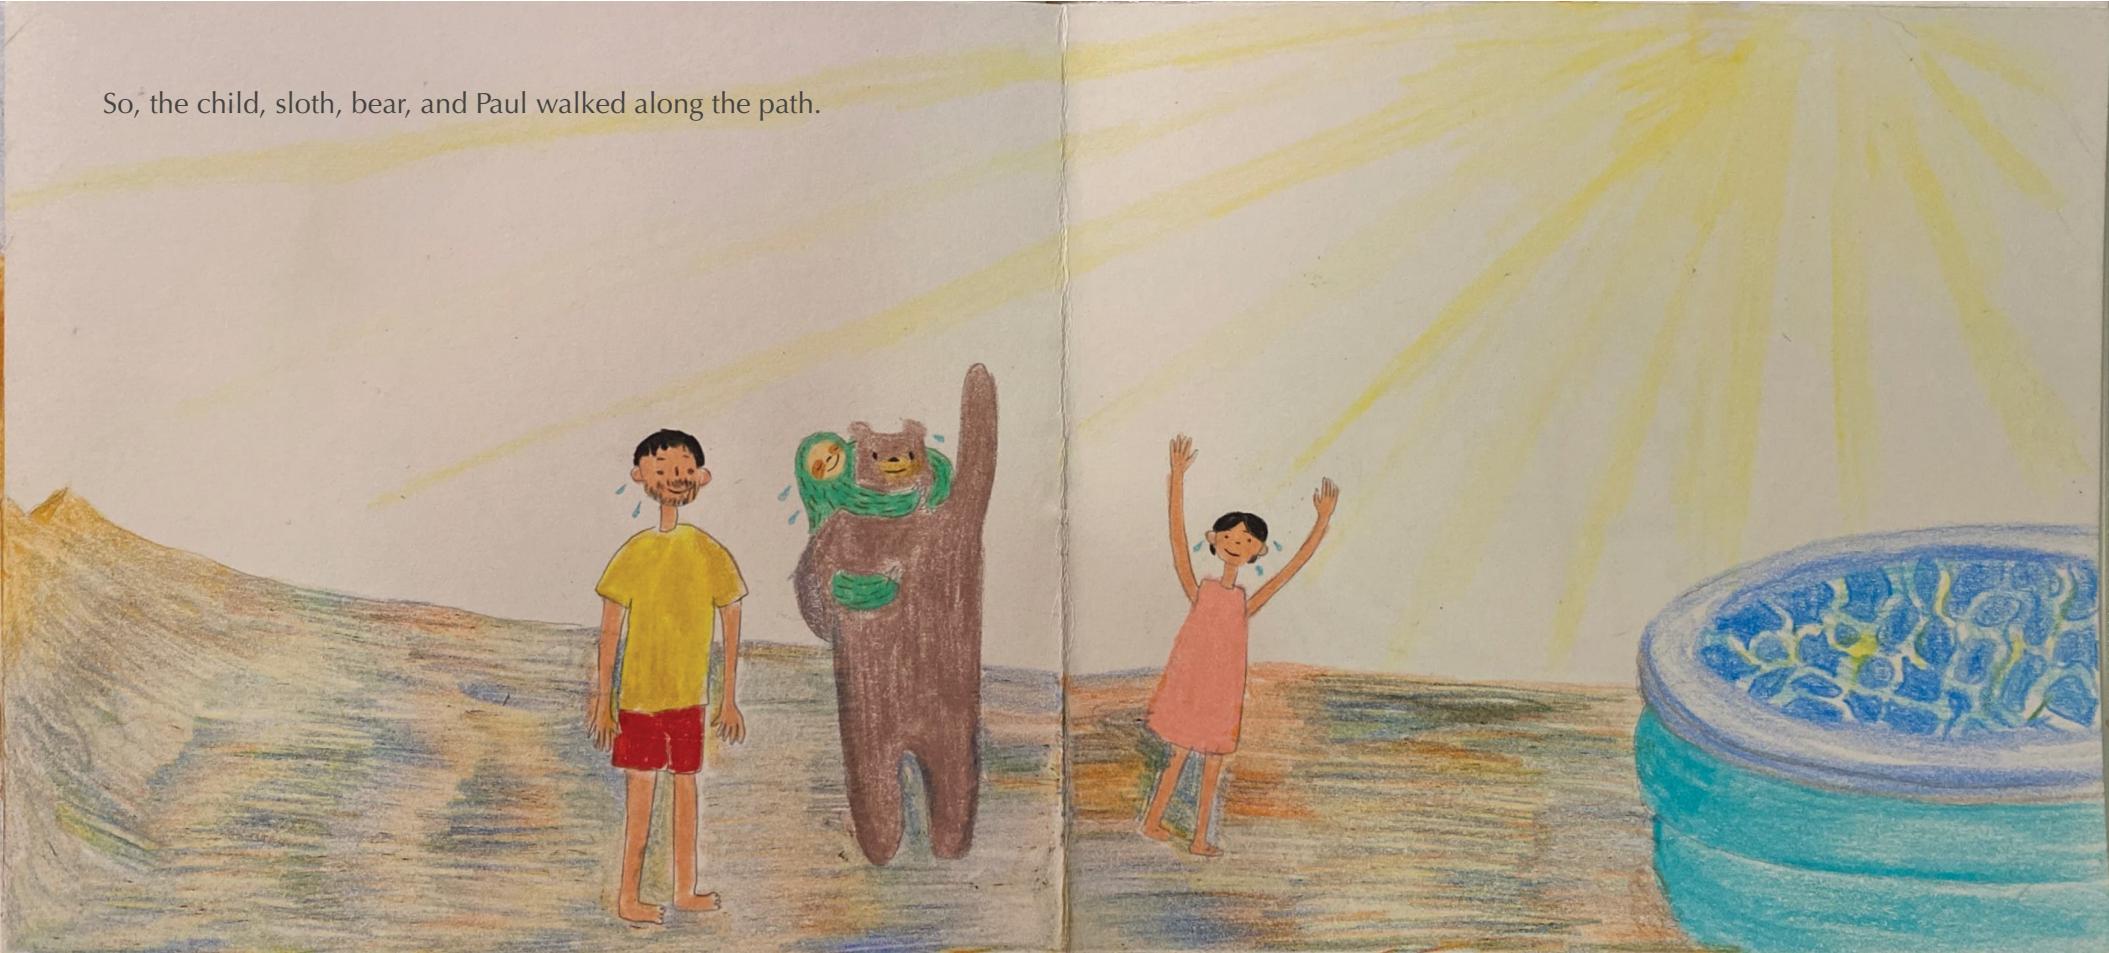

You should come with us,
maybe you'll remember!

Hi, where are you all going?

I guess I have but I don't seem to remember how.

Okay!

So, the child, sloth, bear, and Paul walked along the path.

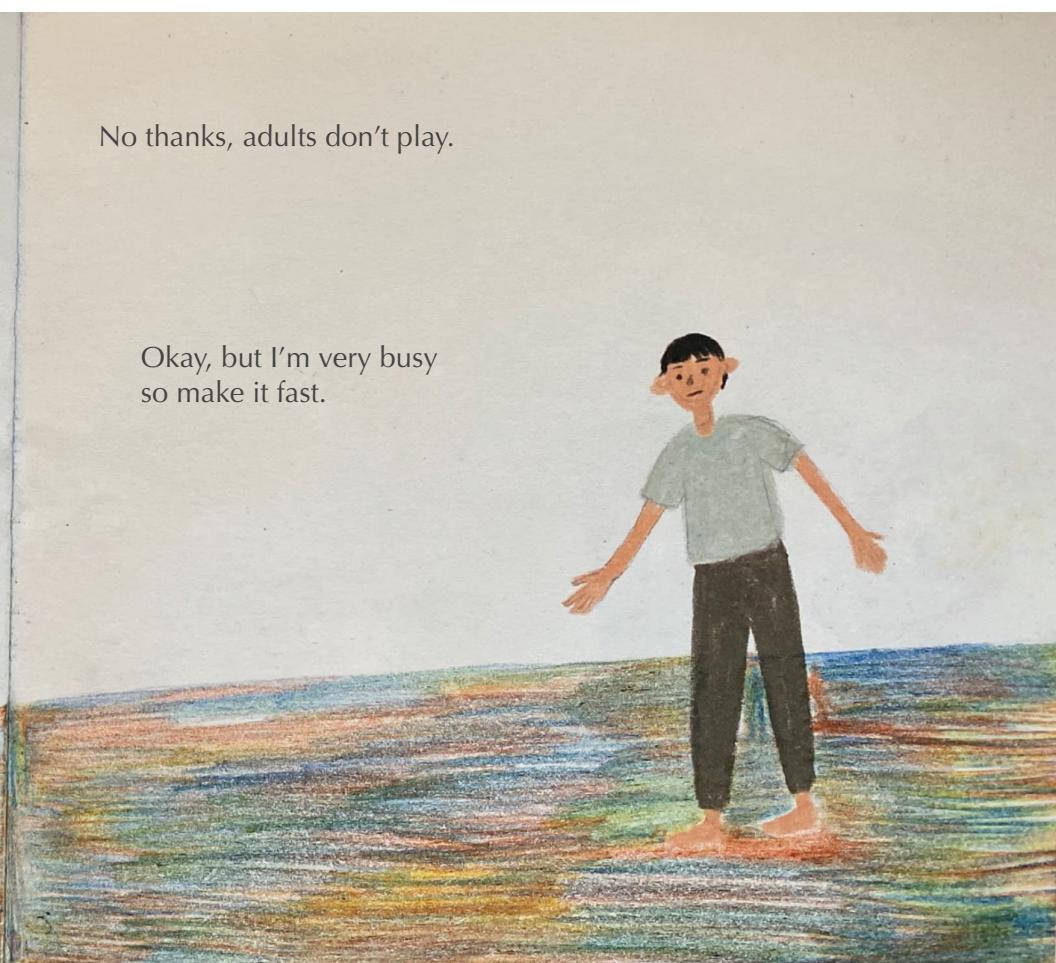

Hi, come in! Play with us.

Wow you're an adult! We are going on a journey to become adults . Will you guide us?

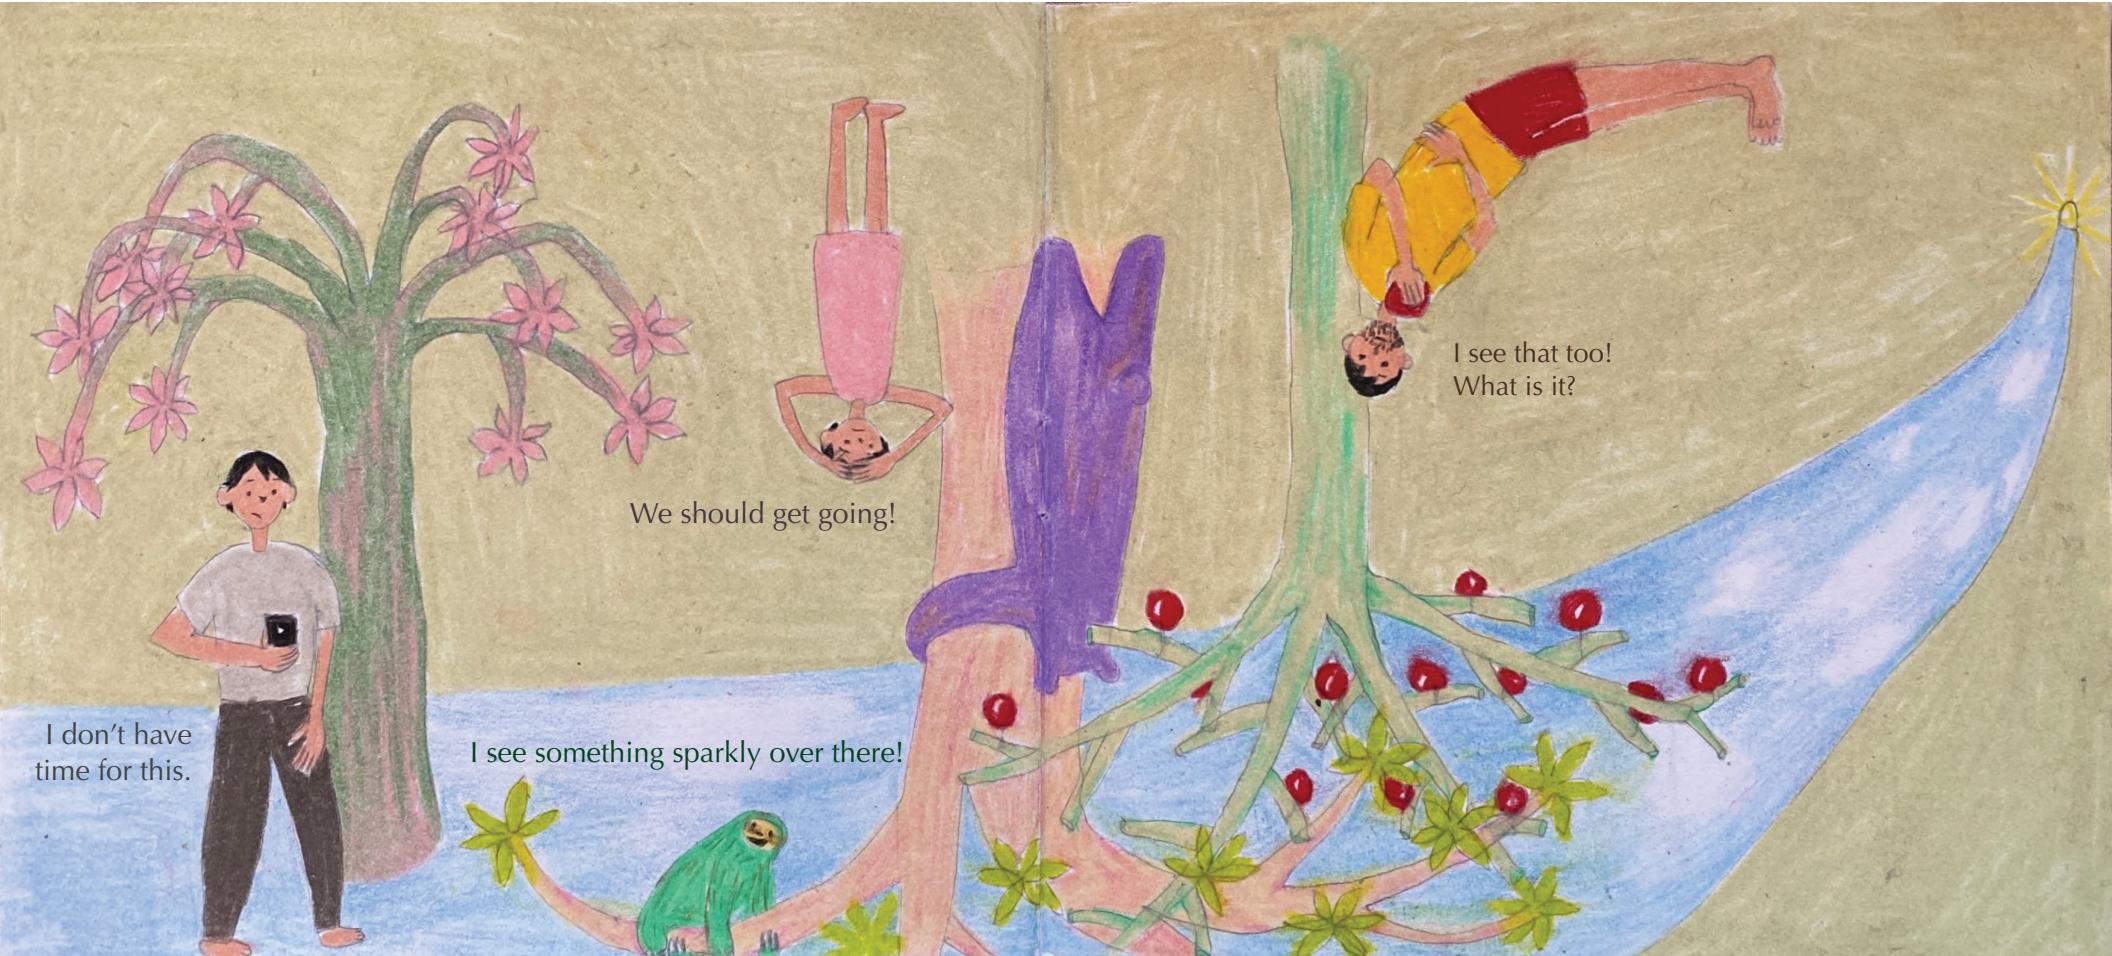

No thanks, adults don't play.

Okay, but I'm very busy so make it fast.

So, the child, sloth, bear, Paul, and the adult walked along the path.

Are we leaving already?

I don't have time for this.

I see something sparkly over there!

I see that too!
What is it?

It's a mirror!

Did we make it?

Are we adults now?

Never realized my eyes
were this colour.

What a pretty mirror.

Let's go. Why are we wasting time looking at this?

Look, we can go further.
Let's go.

Why are we rushing?

I do have enough time...

Hey, Actually,
let's go back to the pool!
